

RULES AND REGULATIONS

FEHRA

Online Application Procedure for Fellows of the EHRA (FEHRA)

- Download the application form on the FEHRA website.
- Applications must be complete and in English using our dedicated online system.

FEHRA Timelines

- FEHRA applications are open from August through October.
- Applications submitted after 31st October will not be considered.
- Newly accepted Fellows of the EHRA will be informed by email in December.

FEHRA Selection and Payment Rules

- Candidates are informed by email in December of their acceptance or rejection.
- Annual Fellowship fee of €308 (incl. VAT) is due before 31st December.
- If the annual FEHRA fee is not paid by 1st January, privileges are cancelled.
- After two years of non-payment – whether consecutive or not – the Fellowship is cancelled, although there is a three-month grace period whereby the Fellow can be reinstated upon full payment.
- A 'pay-in-order' principle applies whereby past fees owed must be paid in full before payment is accepted for the current year.

Personal Data Privacy

Collected information is subject to data processing and storage for two years by the European Society of Cardiology via the EHRA Selection Committee and the EHRA Executive Board. In accordance with Chapter 3 of the European Regulation 2016/679 on data protection, you have the right to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data, as well as to restrict its processing and portability.

For such requests, you can email dataprivacy@escardio.org or contact by mail:

Data Privacy
European Society of Cardiology
Les Templiers
2035 Route des Colles
CS 80179 BIOT
06903 SOPHIA ANTIPOLE CEDEX, France

Note: For such requests, proof of identity will be requested via a secure web link.

As well, ESC has appointed a Data Protection Officer you can reach at dpo@escardio.org, for information or to lodge a complaint.